FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Frontline Foods New Haven to deliver 1,000+ meals per day

New Haven CT, April 19, 2020 – Beginning Monday, April 20, 2020, the New Haven chapter of Frontline Foods will begin delivering 1,000+ meals per day to frontline health care workers at Yale New Haven Hospital's York Street and St. Raphael campuses. Breakfast and late-shift dinners will be delivered to all COVID-19 floors, both Emergency Departments, and two New Haven COVID-19 testing sites.

Restaurant partners include Atticus Bookstore Cafe, B-Natural Kitchen, Crêpes Choupette, Garden Catering, Geronimo Tequila Bar & Southwest Grill, House of Naan, Junzi Kitchen, Katalina's, Koffee Katering, Lena's Cafe and Confections, Miya's Sushi, Olea, Olmo, Roia Restaurant, CitySeed's Sanctuary Kitchen, Skappo Italian Wine Bar, Union League Cafe, Zinc New Haven, and Zoi's New Haven.

"I would like to thank our generous donors, our all-volunteer staff, and our dedicated restaurant owners and staff for collaborating to support and feed our health care heroes," said Laurie Rosenfield Falk, Frontline Food New Haven's chapter lead.

Through its partnership with World Central Kitchen, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) international relief organization led by chef José Andrés, Frontline Foods has raised over $2,000,000 nationwide and provided more than 70,000 meals (with tens of thousands more on the way) to our frontline workers in hospitals in 45 cities across the United States.
